

dence: 4724 Kenmore Av. Office: 404 Rector Building.

BARBER, Albert Harry, creamery machinery; born Chicago, Feb. 13, 1882; son Albert H. and Mary (Pennell) Barber; ed. Cornell Univ. in class of 1905; unmarried. Upon death of father, 1903, succeeded him as pres. and dir. of A. H. Barber & Co. Also pres. A. H. Barber Creamery Supply Co. Republican. Clubs: Union League, Kenwood Country. Recreation: tennis. Residence: 566 Bryant Av. Office: 223 W. South Water St.

BARBER, Courtenay, life underwriter; born Simcoe, Ont., Can., June 5, 1877; son of Charles Edgar and Josephine Amelia (Lowe) Barber; ed. pub. grammar and high schools, Simcoe, Ont.; married Lella Cook, of Chicago, Jan. 16, 1902. Began business career as clerk in Chicago office of the Equitable Life Assurance Soc. of the U.S., Dec. 22, 1892, with which has since been identified, as clerk, 1892-9, solicitor, 1899-1902, and general agent at Chicago since Aug. 1, 1902. Sec. and mem. board trustees Chicago Home for Boys since its organization in 1906; mem. nat. council, and since 1910, 2d vice-pres. Brotherhood of St. Andrew. Republican. Episcopalian; vestryman Church of the Redeemer since 1903. Mason, Kenwood Lodge, Oriental Consistory, Medinah Temple. Clubs: Union League, Chicago Athletic, Hamilton, Church Club of Chicago. Residence: 1438 E. 51st St. Office: 617 Peoples Gas Bldg.

BARBER, Herbert Lee, investments; born Jackson, Mich., May 20, 1865; son of Levi W. and Martha L. (Naracon) Barber; ed. pub. schools and Olivet (Mich.) Coll.; married M. Elizabeth Graham, of Oskaloosa, Ia., Aug. 28, 1901; 2 children: Haskell and Bernice. Began teaching school in Mich. and Ind., which continued until 1890, when came to Chicago and engaged in publishing business, in which remained until 1904; publications included various productions of the late Murat Halstead and others; engaged as dealer in investment securities since 1905, under the firm name of H. L. Barber & Co.; also editor of Investing For Profit (newspaper). Republican. Congregationalist. Mem. Chicago Assn. of Commerce. Clubs: Chicago Athletic, Hamilton, Birchwood Country, Aero of Illinois. Recreations: his library and bowling. Residence: 1540 Lunt Av., Rogers Park. Office: 408 Great Northern Bldg.

BARBER, Hiram, lawyer; born Queensbury, Warren Co., N.Y., Mar. 24, 1835; son Hiram and Salome (Seeley) Barber; moved to Wis., 1846; ed. 3 years in Univ. of Wis.; attended Albany Law School; married 1867, Louisa, daughter of Gen. James McEwan, of Chester, Wis.; children: Helen (Mrs. H. L. Kadish), Florence (Mrs. D. C. Everitt), Sherman, Cameron. Admitted to bar, 1856; practiced at Juneau, Wis., as partner of Hon. Charles Billingshurst; later at Watertown, Wis., partner of Col. Charles R. Gill, former atty.-gen. of Wis.; removed to Chicago, 1866; mem. firm of Jussem (Edmund) & Barber until 1869, Barber & Lackner (Francis), 1869-78; mem. of Congress, 1879-81; receiver of Land Office, Mitchell, Dak., 1881-5; returned to Chicago and practiced in partnership with Theodore Brentano until latter was elected to bench of Superior Court; since then in practice alone; master in chancery Superior Court of Cook Co. since 1891. Secured original appropriation for Waukegan harbor, 1880. Republican. Mason (K.T.). Residence: Maywood, Ill. Office: 32 N. Clark St.

BARBER, John Child, mfr.; born St. Lawrence Co., N.Y., Dec. 12, 1844; son Alonson and Emeline (Child) Barber; ed. pub. schools of St. Lawrence Co., N.Y., and Rock Co., Wis., 1852-60; served in a Wis. regt. in the Civil War, Sept. 1861-Aug. 1865; married Fond du Lac, Wis., Mar. 3, 1869, Fannie M. Craig; children: Annie C., Franklin L., Lee W. Employed by C.&N.W.Ry.Co. at Fond du Lac, Wis., 1865-71; car foreman Northern Pacific Ry., St. Paul, 1871-3; master car builder M.K.&T.Ry., Sedalia, Mo., 1873-83; supt. Rio Grande division Texas Pacific Ry., Ft. Worth, Tex., 1883-5; master car builder Northern Pacific Ry., St. Paul, 1885-97; came to Chicago in 1898 and organized the Standard Car Truck Co., of which has since been pres. Inventor of R.R. appliances, and originator and patentee of the Barber trucks. Republican. Club: South Shore Country. Recreations: motoring, fishing, hunting. Residence: 5627 Monroe Av. Office: McCormick Bldg.

BARBER, Lyman W.; see Vol. 1905.

BARBER, Sherman, mfr.; born Chicago, Mar. 8, 1871; son Hiram and Louisa (McEwan) Barber; in ranch life near Mitchell, Dakota Ty. (now S.D.), 1881-8; attended Mitchell (pub.) School; in 1888 took course at Chicago Athenaeum, and later other special courses; married Ethel May Messmore, of Mishawaka, Ind., Dec. 20, 1905; 2 sons: Roger Philip and Sherman, Jr. Was mgr. West Side Natatorium, 1891; employed in mfg., 1892; mgr. South Side Natatorium, 1893-1900. Since 1896 identified with The Jones Positive Nut Lock Co., of which is pres. Republican. Episcopalian. Mason. Club: Colonial. Residence: Lexington Hotel. Office: 2812-2814 Wabash Av.

BARBOUR, Frank, fire underwriter; born Norwalk, Conn., Feb. 18, 1863; ed. pub. schools; unmarried. Entered ins. business in 1880 and later became a mem. firm of Smith, Miller, Whitney & Barbour (established 1874), consolidated in 1901 with R. S. Critchell & Co. (established 1863), under firm name of Critchell, Miller, Whitney & Barbour, sole agents for 13 large English and Am. companies. Republican. Clubs: Union League, Chicago Athletic, Mid-Day, Kenwood, Midlothian. Recreation: golf. Residence: Chicago Beach Hotel. Office: LaSalle St., S.W. Cor. Madison St.

BARBOUR, James Joseph, lawyer; born Hartford, Conn., Dec. 28, 1869; son Rev. H. H. and Frances E. Barbour; ed. grammar and high schools of Newark, N.J., to 1886, Chicago Coll. of Law, 1889-92; married Chicago, Sept. 1, 1891, Lillian Clayton; children: Justin F. Heman H., Elizabeth. Newspaper reporter, Camden, N. J., 1887; began study of law with Judge Frederick A. Smith, Chicago, 1888; became asst. to Henry F. Eames, pres. Commercial Nat. Bank, 1889, and upon admission to bar, 1891, continued as atty. for the bank until Mr. Eames' death, in 1897. Appointed asst. state's atty., Jan. 1904, by Charles S. Deneen, reappointed by John J. Healy in Dec. 1904, and was 1st asst., 1907-8; as prosecutor obtained convictions, of Inga Hanson, for perjury committed by her in her suit against Chicago City Ry. for alleged personal injuries; of George S. McReynolds, fraudulent removal of grain covered by warehouse receipts, upon which McReynolds had borrowed more than $700,000; of William Eugene Brown, attempted subornation of perjury in disbarment proceedings growing out of charge of bank swindling; of Lucy Hagenow, sentenced to 20 years for murder, resulting from illegal operation. Assisted in prosecution of Paul O. Stensland and other officials of Milwaukee State Bank; conducted trial of Iroquois Theatre fire case at Danville, Ill.; the first "Sunday closing" case; removed Ralph Lipsey habeas corpus case from Superior Court to Supreme Court by certiorari, and was there successful in obtaining decision denying right of habeas corpus writ to a defendant whose conviction has been affirmed by the Supreme Court. In case of Herman Billik, convicted of murder by poisoning, obtained initial decision in U.S. Supreme Court that that court lacked jurisdiction to consider appeals from orders denying habeas corpus writs except upon certificate of nisi prius judge that appeal is meritorious; obtained evidence of huge primary election frauds in the nomination for state's atty. in Aug. 1908, which evidence